

8 Questions During Lent

1. Am I sharing gladly what I have with others, especially the stranger and the poor?
2. Do I have a gracious and patient attitude with others, especially those who irritate me?
3. Do I feel the connection to God and others in corporate worship?
4. How is my prayer and devotional life progressing?
Am I listening to God more and complaining less?
5. Is it time for a change or growth in my bible study or prayer life?
6. What are the lurking sin problems that plague me?
7. Am I thoughtful and forgiving of my family and others?
8. Do I speak up for the marginal and oppressed or do I remain silent in order to remain popular?